The Life of a Single Mom Ministries

The Life of a Single Mom Ministries (TLSM) exists to see that no single mom walks alone. We do so in a variety of ways, including establishing single moms support groups and working within churches and communities to help empower single parent families. We offer single moms support through resource referrals, online forums, free resources, training, seminars, conferences, events, counseling, and so much more. We are a resource hub for all things single parent and single parent ministry related.

Why

The Single Mom of The Year Award was designed to honor and recognize the role single mothers have in creating and building the lives of children and successful communities. The goal is to encourage the single parent family and build character, courage, and commitment within those families.
